Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, DC 20505

Dear Mr. Casey:

I have your letter dated March 31st.

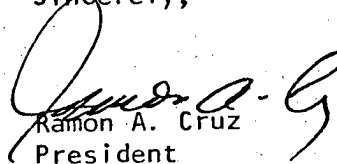

Our meeting in Washington was extremely interesting and I sincerely thank you not only for your hospitality, but also for taking the time to share with us vital details of our National Security Programs.

I share your concerns for the problems discussed in the meeting and we stand ready to help in any way possible in your objectives to preserve the security of our nation. It would be convenient to continue meetings of this nature with other university presidents.

You were probably informed about the concern expressed by the group regarding the role of the media in dealing with issues critical to the national security. This subject should be analyzed further by your agency.

I also wish you success in your difficult job.

Sincerely,

Ramon A. Cruz
President
